Alaskans invited to bid on 186 state land parcels

(Anchorage, AK) – The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) is inviting Alaskans interested in owning a piece of the Last Frontier to participate in the 2022 Alaska State Land Auction, Offering #493, which includes 186 road-accessible and remote parcels throughout the state.

“Alaskans feel a powerful connection with their land, and there is something special about owning a piece of property where you can put down roots, build a home and build a life in our beautiful state,” said Governor Mike Dunleavy. “Land auctions are just one of the ways DNR helps implement my vision of putting Alaska land into Alaskans’ hands, and I encourage everyone to consider taking advantage of this opportunity.”

Alaska residents may submit sealed bids in person, by mail, or online between Wednesday, June 1 at 10 a.m. and October 4 at 4:30 p.m. Apparent high bids will be announced October 19. Bidders may purchase up to two parcels. Free auction brochures can be downloaded from the DNR Land Sales website at:

<https://dnr.alaska.gov/mlw/landsales/brochure/>.”

Parcels not sold at auction may be available through Over-the-Counter (OTC) sales to Alaska residents, non-residents or businesses, starting on November 2 at 10 a.m. OTC parcels currently available for purchase are posted on the Land Sales website’s Over-the-Counter section. DNR offers competitive in-house financing for land purchases. For more information about OTC sales, see Auction Brochure #493, page 25.
